Four Faults And It's A Bad Start To The Year But He's Up And Back On The Horse!

Is it just me or has this been a really strange and rather disappointing start to the new year! No, I'm sure its not just me because I've heard the same from loads of other people too! For what was promised to be the year of dreams and sooooo much better than last year I can't but think we've started badly. However lets hope that, as a friend of mine said, maybe we're just still clearing a little left over crap from last year and that the further we move away from it the greater the year will become. I, so far, have had a rather nasty run in with a bullying despot, nearly killed Andrew by shutting his head in the boot of the car on the very first meeting of my development group in Cumbria (and boy did his head bleed!), had to deal with what can only be described as a crisis of confidence with my work and even a little separation anxiety from leaving good old Rose Cottage! Add on top of this the fact that I'm well and truly over Winter and LONGING for a little spring sunshine. However I'm holding the faith and trusting that sometimes Spirit point us in the right direction by under lining those things in our life that just aren't right in order to encourage us to move on and that all those positive messages we have received about 2008 and continue to receive are true ... just a little delayed ... that's all ... honest!

Spring Sighted At Rose Cottage ... World Exclusive!

Having just moaned on about winter I must say that spring has well and truly been spotted at Rose cottage with not only the most beautiful outbreak of snowdrops you could ever hope to see (a drift of snowdrops Andrew calls them) but also bunnies on the lawn doing a little grass maintenance for us as well as dormice awake from their long winter sleep stealing the bird seed in the garden. Even the light seems to be holding out a little longer and the sky (on occasion) a little bluer to boot! Oh yes folks we're past Imbolc and spring is a coming fast, so lets hear a hip hip hooray for sunshine and long twilight dusks shall we ... hip hip hooray!

New Energies & Presences For A New Year!

Despite the weirdness of some of my readings in January there have been some rather interesting visitations and revelations too. One being the manifestation of Lady Iris a new (or rather new to us) Lady Ascended Master who watches over the Devic Kingdoms from a point of love, care and healing! Her colours are deep royal blue and bright yellow (like the flower) and I think we'll be hearing a lot more from her as the year goes on! The Archangel Hophriel the Angel of Hope has also made an appearance, his symbol being the Dove of Peace. He too I feel will need to be called upon by some quite a lot this year whether for themselves or for others, his power being the restoration of hope and the implantation of it in the very heart of darkness and despair. Add to this the emergence of two new rays, the Platinum Violet Flame – the highest spiritual expression of the violet flame that can be used to transform higher spiritual energies altering their dynamic and balance such as shifting our comprehension to new heights or helping with the evolution of the Merkabah or activation of the Higher Chakra's and the Brilliance Ray a bright shining ray of light (brought to my attention by Jean Harrison ... thanks Jean) which is said to increase our mental body capacity making us brighter and capable of understanding and accessing greater spiritual truth and understanding. If anyone has any further information or experience of these Masters, Angels or Rays then please do get in touch and let me know, I'd be very interested to hear from you.

Website Of The month!

A new feature of the Courtenay Chronicles will be Website Of The Month! A website that I have become aware of that I think is of note and importance! This week that website would be www.callofnature.co.uk the website of Sue Hodgeson a spiritual channel, healer and ambassador for the elemental kingdom! Sue receives channellings (which you can find on her website) from the fairy folk and elementals in rhyme! Some of you may remember her work from an article in Cygnus Review a few years back. She also is a Reiki Master and Green Ray initiator and healer. The Green Ray is the animating life force energy in nature, often spoke about in magickal circles, which has been found to be particularly good at regenerating organs and fighting cancer! Sue runs workshops and gives lectures on the elementals and the green ray as well as personal and absent healing sessions. Check out her website for more details ... it's a real beauty and so is she!

New Reading Opportunities With Edwin Courtenay!

Due to the fact that most people wanting a reading can't get one till August 2036 (ok slight exaggeration) Andrew and I have added a few new reading opportunities that can be accessed via the Ipsissimus website. The first is readings at Treadwells in London, Treadwells is a fantastic little occult bookshop in Covent Garden and (if all goes well) will be my new reading venue in London that will replace my working from the college of Psychic Studies. Readings at Treadwells will be available on the 29th of February and the 16th and 17th of April. As well as this there will also be Absent Readings available with specific booking times this is to ensure that you know when your reading will be done and therefore should be with you. To book visit www.ipssissimus.co.uk and go to the shop section and look under readings! Please note that the usual readings organised by a variety of lovelies in various different locations up and down the country will go ahead as usual as will the online single questions that can be bought from the Ipsissimus shop. For a full list of my organisers please go to the contacts page on my website www.edwincourtenay.co.uk

Retreat! Retreat! Retreat! Ascension Retreat On Its Way!

That's right folks the Ascension Retreat that I mentioned in my last Chronicle is now officially up and running big time, Rosemary and I have already had amazing response from last months mail out with several people booking already even without knowing the price! What we can now reveal is that the full price of the four day retreat, to be held at the Hayberglill Centre in Cumbria, will be £560 for four days and nights. This includes the £70 a night fee for full bed and board, the food being home cooked by the staff at the centre themselves. Rosemary and I are planning an up to date exciting programme that will focus upon everything that you need to know regarding your personal ascension and spiritual service. As well as meditations, initiations, live channellings, group sound healing sessions, lectures and spiritual exercises Rosemary will be on hand for personal sound and spiritual healing and I to channel personal answers and guidance to spiritual questions. The Masters and angels of course will be in attendance too as there will undoubtedly be some work on the landscape and the surrounding lay line system also to be done. A certain amount of the content is being kept under wraps by spirit until nearer the time so that it is current and potent when delivered. This very special four days promises to be potentially life changing, so don't hesitate if your drawn. Email Rosemary or myself for further details and to book.

February Dates For Your Diary!

On the 19th of February I'll be giving my last LECTURE at the College of Psychic Studies entitled Become The Super Hero You Were Always Intended To Be. This promises to be quite the finale focusing on that magickal unused potential in the brain that scientists are so keen on quoting and how this may be connected to the psychical and manifestationary abilities that many people now possess or are beginning to develop. The lecture will explore the myths and realities regarding this potential and provide practical exercises and steps that can be taken to further develop it. The evening will include a meditation and live trance channelling from the Masters on how we can become our future selves, evolved and enlightened beings, the super hero's we always intended to be! On the 23rd of February in Preston near Manchester I will be speaking at the Angel and Crystal Convention organised by the Tribe of the Light. I'll be in good company such as Judy Hall and Theolyn Cortens with Alison Knox the extremely talented and well known Angel Artist and Channel now also confirmed to speak. To book please go to the Tribe of the Light website at www.totl.co.uk. The day after at the College of Psychic Studies I'll be giving a workshop entitled Mystic or Psychic exploring the different nature of those walking the psychical path and the spiritual one, how we can tell which path we're on or which path we are best suited to, how to further develop our skills in these areas and if and how we can develop both skills side by side. This will be a challenging workshop which will include meditations, live channellings and practical experience and instruction in flower reading, sand reading and auragraphs! To book call the college directly on 02075893292 or visit their website www.collegeofpsychicstudies.co.uk On the 29th I'll begin my readings at Treadwells (as mentioned above) and then on the first of March be giving another workshop at the College Unlocking the door to Past Lives exploring the nature of reincarnation and past lives, how to recall them and how to clear karmic wounds and karmic patterns as well as dealing with and recognising that karma which we bring with us into this incarnation. This workshop will incorporate the usual meditations, live channellings and exercises as well as contributions from St Germain and the Archangel Zadkiel, the Angel of the violet Flame, please see above for details of how to book this course.

Keep A Watchful Eye!

And finally just reminding you to keep a watchful on the website for updates and additions, the diary is being constantly added too, so if it's a workshop, lecture or reading you're looking for that's the place to watch but also new spells are uploaded regularly (we've added a few for this month) plus new channellings as they are received from Spirit (channelled by myself and others) will of course be added to the Channelling page and if that wasn't enough of me I can be found gracing the pages of this months Paradigm Shift click here www.paradigmshift.info to get a copy and find out more. As well as that you can find me in a new ad for the Celestial Light Healers to be appearing in Kindred Spirit and Cygnus Review! Well that's all for this month my lovelies, keep your chin up and your eyes fixed on signs for spring ... this month has surely got to be better than the last ain't it????

New Look Ipsissimus

Ipsissimus has been re-vamped with a new look and new pages.

We've grouped things together in themes. So the Angels page, for example, now contains, books, jewellery, crystals etc all on the theme of Angels.

We also have, for the first time, the ability to book a reading with Edwin in London on-line yourself!

Places are limited so hurry
