

May 2008

It's May and I'm another year older!

Many, many thanks for all the lovely gifts and kind sentiments sent by email or snail mail for my birthday! I had a wonderful time eating too much, being waited on like a King (or should that be Queen) and shopping in Newcastle's Metro Centre (a little like heaven for retail addicts). Andre spoilt me rotten with banners and balloons (see below) making being 37 (37 ... almost 40 already) not seem too bad at all. So here's to my 37th year on planet Earth (this time round), lets make it a good one!

A New Member of the Family!

One of my lovely, lovely presents this year was a BioOrb! A kind of giant fish bowl!!

Andrew bought me it after I complained about not having a Dog and so on May the 1st Andrew and I went shopping for the newest member of our family Dexter the fish! Dexter now swims in my meditation room/office and will soon be the most spiritually enlightened fish on the planet (what with all the non corporal visitors I have) I enclose a little picture of him (smiling) below!

James Twyman Cometh!

It's hard to believe that we are only a week away from the Celestial Light Healers event The Keys To The Kingdom of Heaven featuring James, Twyman, Rosemary Stephenson, Trudy Ashplant, Declan Kerr and myself! Tickets are still available for what promises to be an amazing day at the incredibly beautiful Gorton Monastery in Manchester. James will be talking about his new book and film, the Moses Codes, Rosemary will be enchanting us with her singing and sounding bowls, Trudy will be speaking about the Masters, Declan about the mysteries of Solomon and I about the Christ Light and the Earths Ascension with the Maitreya and Khutumi. For more in formation and to book a ticket log on to ...

Talking of the Celestial Light Healers

Website of the Month!

This months suggested website belongs to rosemary Stephenson, angelic Reiki Master, Gaiadon

Master Facilitator, Diana Cooper Teacher, principle of the British Healers Association and Sound Healer. Rosemary is just about one of the nicest people you might ever want to meet, let alone be healed or taught by. Her website details her courses up and down the country and features a fantastic picture of her Indigo dog (or should that be Indogo) Telsa who is just gorgeous and truly an exceptional healer. To find out more log onto www.celestiallighthealers.com.

CD of the Month

This month for all Goddess devotee's I would heartily recommend Womyn In Circle by Carien Wijnen and the Rainbow Womyn choir. This beautiful Cd is full of choral chants in praise of the divine Mother and is truly a moving celebration of the creative source of all life! I dare you to listen to it and not to cry!

TV of the Month

This months suggested TV viewing has to be Hero's! If you missed the first season go treat yourself to the box set, in shops now. This fantastic piece of sci-fi story telling explores a world of evolving (ascending) beings who join together to save the world, its just another fine example of the notion of the evolution of mankind as a dawning reality in the world today! Gripping stuff.

Dates for Your Diary This Month.

Dates for your diary this month include, a channelled Master G evening in surrey next Tuesday, the Celestial Light Healers event mentioned above on the 11th of May and readings in Surrey, Newcastle, Cumbria and Peterborough details of which can be found on my calendar at www.edwincourtenay.co.uk

Angel of the Home.

Recently whilst attending a Mind, Body, Spirit fair in Cumbria Andrew and I found ourselves situated to an enchanting stall of paintings and sculpture by channel and artist Andrea Alexander. So taken was I by her Angel of the Home (see below) that I snapped it up straight away knowing the perfect spot for her in our living room where she now gazes down upon us with her protective stare. For more information about Andrea's work you can call her direct on 01576 300420 or meet her and see her beautiful work in person at the up and coming Angel Awareness Day at Gorton Monastery in October.

Bath Time With the Red Mother!

In last months Chronicle we featured a give away of some of Francesca Hardy's Child of bones Brews. I myself bought some of these wonderful potions when Francesca first conceived them but have never used them until recently. The brews can be used in a variety of ways (but never ingested) and so finding myself feeling a little low on energy and drive I decided to have a bath with the Red Mother brew, the Red Mother being the Mother Goddess of passion and motivational energy (amongst other things). HOLY MAMMA did it work! At one point I thought my whole body was going to catch on fire! The day after I not only felt rejuvenated but later found my mind open to all sorts of ideas and inspirations that up until this point seemed to have been hidden from me! I shall be working with these incredibly potent forces again in the not to distant future and can't wait to make acquaintance with the energy of Grandmother Seer and Green Jack real soon. To find out more about these wonderful gifts given to us by the Goddesses and Gods (and Francesca of course) log on to her website right away! www.childofbones.com

Moving On Up – The College of Spirituality!

Have you heard about the London College of spirituality? This relatively new organization operates from the heart of London (Holborn) and offers courses, workshops, lectures and consultation from a host of highly talented spiritual channels, healers and teachers. Think College of Psychic Studies for people with a more dedicated and liberal spiritual interest rather than just a psychic one and there you are! I have met with the principle of the College who is a spiritual teacher himself with his heart very much in the right direction. I shall be presenting a workshop on the Ascended Masters, Archangels and Rays later in June, for more information about this and their wide range of other courses check out their website. I hope to be doing a lot more work with them in the future.

New to Ipsissimus this month!

As well as having added some mighty fine Angel statues, fantastic jewellery, enchanting Wicca jewellery and beautiful greetings cards of Goddess's and Angels and Celtic trees as well as some wonderful Ascended Master portraits from Australian artist Pamela Matthews. We are also about to upload, in the next week or so, the following audio CD's of my lectures and workshops.

- Deva's and elementals – workshop
- Everyday Ascension – workshop
- Master G manifesting with the Quantum Field – evening lecture
- The Return of the Christ Light – workshop
- Unlocking the Door to the Akasha – workshop

Check out the Ipsissimus website for wonders to astound and please the heart!

Ever Thought About A Thoughtful Thought Form Workshop?

Thought forms are powerful esoteric tools which anyone can create and use for a variety of reasons, from healing, distant healing and protecting yourself, your loved ones and your home to finding lost objects and seeking out your Soul mate or dream job! Interested? Want to find out more? I will be holding a workshop on this very exciting topic, no previous experience necessary at Treadwells Bookshop in Covent Garden on Sunday the 22nd of June. The workshop will also look at negative thought forms, where they come from and how to clear them from our lives. To book yourself a place go to the Ipsissimus website, click on shop and then Treadwells Workshops, it promises to be a most experiential, exciting and fun filled day. Be there or be lacking a thought form or two!

And finally ... energy shifts and Indigo teenagers!

This month watch out for the following energy shifts hitting the Earth! ...

Also log onto my blog to find out more about the Indigo teenagers that are taking the charts by storm!

Have a wonderful May and don't get too dizzy dancing round that poll, maybe when you read the Chronicle next month we'll have some mighty fine sunshine to moan about ... fingers crossed!

The May Moon

The maiden Moon she rides the sky
To her destiny she flies.

Beltane fires burn bright and true
Bringing forth lovers anew.

The Bluebell sings in a forest glen
The shades of which you'll never ken.

Fledglings awing and a meal espied
For the Raven's eye is never tired.

Both Jack and Jill can be seen
With Jacks a-boxing very keen.

The maiden Moon she rides the sky
Her lover met and now they lie.

And Spring is with us once again
Oh goddess kissed the hearts of men

Advanced Notice
2nd August 2008

Healing with Body
Elementals

London Workshop with Edwin Courtenay

Book a place online at www.ipssissimus.co.uk
(enter the shop and locate the Treadwells Workshop page)