

THE COURTENAY CHRONICLE

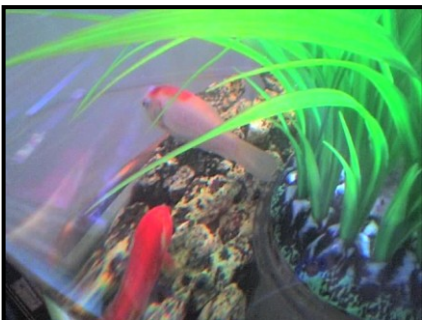

June 2008

Bright Blessed Be & Welcome To Summer!

In between the rain and the winds (not to mention the chilly evenings) we've actually had a little sunshine here in Cumbria and managed to sit out in the glorious Sun, have a bite to eat and listen to the birdies making merry, feeding their young and bathing in the dirt and water. We even have a nest of Blue Tits in the old rusty street lamp which sits outside the front gate, a chorus of young hungry babies greeting us every time we take the car out for a spin! Lovely! I hope that you (where ever you might be) continue to enjoy the wonderful weather (what ever it might be) throughout June and despite your worries or your stresses remember to take in a little of the Summer loveliness for yourself. Don't forget the Sunshine is bursting with positive prana this time of the year so breathe it in and fill yourself up ... go on knock yourself out its free! And there's not to many things in life we can say that about now is there?

The Family Just Gets Bigger and Bigger!

Yes, finally the month is up and after a long wait Dexter, my extra ordinary fish, has been joined by Didi and Debbie two more extraordinary fish! Have a little look at the picture below, I swear these fish are Ascended Masters in the making, all the vibes they absorb in my meditation room! That was a joke by the way!

CD of the Week – Healing for Mother Earth

This wonderful 2 disc guided meditation CD set was channelled by my good friend Carolyn Williams, an Angelic Reiki Master, healer, channel and Giadon Heart Master Teacher. Carolyn, along with Andrew David a talented professional musician, brought forwards two beautiful guided meditations, as well as a channelling from the Earth Spirit and the Archangels Uriel and Sandalphon. The CD set also includes channelled instrumental tracks which contain the energy of all the presences mentioned. The CD is available from either Ipsissimus or Carolyn directly via her website (web address here).

Website of the Week – Peace Mala

Recently at the Gorton Monastery event I was approached by a lovely lady who offered me the gift of the Peace Mala. The Peace Mala is a bracelet bearing different coloured beads each representing the different religions of the world and hopes to encourage celebration and religious tolerance, acceptance and education for children and adults throughout the world. Needless to say I was thrilled to discover that there is a green bead which represents Earth religions including Wicca and Druidism! I now wear my Peace Mala with pride and am encouraging others to do so too. To find out more about the Peace Mala project and to obtain a Peace Mala for yourself go to www.peacemala.org.uk

Book of the Week – Diet of a Raw Food Goddess

Sometime ago now I was approached by a lady asking me if she could incorporate into a book she was planning some information channelled by myself concerning the Mother Mary, that lady was Frieda Roenisch and the book Diet of a Raw Food Goddess. Finally the book has been published and although at the end of the day the information from those channellings never found its way into the book it self the book is still very beautiful and full of fascinating information for all those wanting to know more about spiritual diets and how food effects our spiritual well being as well as our health. For more information about the book or to order a copy contact frieda_mary@yahoo.co.uk

Movie of the Week – Indiana Jones and the Temple of the Crystal Skull

This long awaited fourth instalment from George Lucas and Steven Spielberg is a bit of a let down if you were hoping for spiritual insights into the Crystal skull phenomena but a great rip roaring adventure yarn! Bursting with UFO's, Aliens, Area 51 and works like Hive Mind and Collective Consciousness it see Indiana (a sprightly 65 year old Harrison Ford) returning a Crystal skull to its ancient Mayan Temple hotly pursued by a psychic villainess from Russia! Go on and treat yourself, I dare you not to spill your pop corn!

Prayer for World Peace

*We ask that the time of world peace is now.
Each person surrender to their Higher selves and gain a new inner peace and serenity.
Leave behind the residual conditioning and emotions of the past and cultivate a new level of understanding, forgiveness and compassion.
Enabling the world's population to live together in acceptance of each person's individuality, diversity and belief.
Embracing a new level of stability, security,
world peace, plenty for everyone, harmony and unity.
As each person moves forward on this level of unconditional love, may they shine and become empowered as they recognise their individual strengths, gifts and talents, and accelerate their own learning, experience, knowledge and wisdom.
Let us understand how all of this can effect a new foundation and benefit the Highest good of mankind and humanity
May each person make a difference in our World and from this life experience move forward with understanding and enlightenment.
This prayer is said with the highest levels of love,
sincerity and integrity.
In Love, and Light and Healing.
So be it, so it is.*

Up and Coming Workshops

On the 21st of June I will be presenting the Return of The Christ Light Workshop for the last time this year at Market Deeping in Peterborough. For all of those of you who missed this fascinating workshop on the returning energy of the Maitreya and how we can work with it for planetary and personal evolution in Surrey or Huddersfield this is your opportunity to experience the truth, teaching and initiatory energies of this powerful presence.

On the 22nd of June at Treadwells Bookshop near Covent Garden I shall be presenting a fascinating workshop on Thought Forms! This workshop explores in depth the nature of these powerful esoteric tools and how they can be easily created to help us with all forms of protection, as well as protecting others, places and objects. It explores how we can create thought forms to heal and guide, as well as manifest and gather, providing simple practical techniques that are easy to work with, requiring no paraphernalia as well as being uncomplicated and uncluttered! The workshop will also investigate how to clear negative thought forms that we have unwittingly created as well as been the victim of from another's projection! This is a not to be missed opportunity to learn more about this fascinating tools of power!

Finally for June I will be presenting a workshop in Surrey entitled the Apostles of the New Age, this workshop led by the classic Apostles will focus on deepening our commitment as apostles of the New Age and initiating ourselves into the currents of power needed to contribute to the ascension of the planet and the awakening of mankind leading to 2012!

Ed's been Angelic Reiki'd!

This weekend just gone I underwent my Angelic Reiki level one and two under the watchful eye of my good friend Rosemary Stephenson and her wonder dog Telsa! I've been drawn to the course for some time but finally received a prompt from spirit just as Rosemary was planning a course close to home. It was a fantastic weekend spent in the lovely intimate company of my two fellow initiates Sue and Louise, a truly powerful experience that has left me feeling cleansed, energised, empowered and uplifted! I would heartily recommend it to anyone seeking to work more closely with the angels for themselves or others. You can check out the angelic Reiki website for a directory of Reiki Masters in your area but I would heartily recommend Rosemary for those in the North or Carolyn Williams for those in the south. You can find links to these fine ladies websites on my links page at www.edwincourtenay.co.uk
