We're Past The Point Of No Return ...

Can you believe we're already past Midsummer? I mean maybe if we renamed it What summer you could understand it but Midsummer! I ask you ... apart from a few very lovely days scattered amongst the wind and the rain o we've had very little of the Summer heat wave that we've experienced in years gone by. Still the summer Holidays are fast approaching so maybe then, when the streets become infected with a rush of pre pubescent ner-do-wells, we'll find that rather than it being rainy and windy, perfect conditions to keep the little urchins off the streets and at home watching Eastenders, it'll be glorious giving them plenty of day light hours to wreak their havoc on our corner shops and bus stops! Oops ... sorry about that! Must be my inner Victorian Father sneaking out again ... down Arthur, down boy! Enjoy the summer folks and remember your tanning lotion and your umbrella ... just in case!

New Readings Opportunities in Cumbria!

From July onwards I'll be trying out a new readings venue in Cumbria in a little town called Brampton! The reading room is in a spiritual shop called Precious Cargo which is packed with goodies ranging from crystals, to jewellery, cards, singing bowls and salt lamps all benignly watched over by the lovely Bernadette. To find out more or to book a reading go to the online shop www.ipssissimus.co.uk and scroll along the top until you get to "Readings" all the details are online!

Ed's New Online Absent Healing Service!

Ever wondered if you have any Soul contracts that might be holding you back from moving forwards in this life? Ever wondered about Karmic wounds, ties or patterns or just simply wanted those you know about removed but don't know where to turn? Well now is your opportunity to have a detailed and powerful healing from the comfort of your own home. For just £24.95 I'm offering an absent service were my healing guides, the Higher Powers and myself will focus on your problem (hopefully) resolve it and then present you with an A4 page report of what we saw and experienced! Even if you are unsure as to whether you have Soul Contracts or Karmic problems to begin with you place yourself in our good hands and we will see what we can see and deal with what we are permitted to clear. Check out the link at Ipssissimus for further details and how to book a session.

Apologies!

I do apologise to anyone who has recently been cancelled who has booked either a reading or workshop with me at the College of Psychic Studies recently, the workshop that the College asked me to do there this term just haven't booked well enough to warrant the expense of my train fare down and so have had to be cancelled. There are of course absent reading options which can be found online, which are usually available much sooner than a reading in person and also £20 cheaper than readings at the College! I also have a number of workshops up and coming in and around London, the details of which can either be found below or in the calendar section of my website www.edwincourtenay.co.uk

Dates for your diary for July!

As well as a very exciting Ascension Retreat (fully booked I'm afraid) planned for this month and numerous readings dates (also all fully booked) I have my first workshop at the London College of Spirituality – Ascended Masters, Archangels and the Rays on the 19th of July. An excellent workshops for those new to Masters and Angels or those already familiar with these beings I shall be talking about familiar faces in the spiritual hierarchy as well as introducing some new Ascended Masters that have never before been seen or heard from! Follow the link for further information and to book www.londoncollegeofspirituality.co.uk On the 26th of the month I have a workshop at the College of Psychic Studies on the Spiritual Hierarchy, exploring the different spiritual beings in the higher dimensions that we can work with on our spiritual path such as Masters, Cosmic Ascended Masters, Galactic Master and Archangels.

Ascension Shifts this month!

On the 7th of this month (the 7th of the 7th) we will experience an Ascension shift that is St Germain's day alone! This will be a day of transformation when the violet flame will be well and truly aimed at planet Earth. Excellent for getting rid of anything in your life that you want release from (Karma, fear, negative energy or situations) just call upon the power and the man and aim the violet flame with your intention and watch the clouds part giving way to the light!

Movie of the month!

The Chronicles of Narnia – Prince Caspian – The second instalment in the ever popular Narnia series this film though lacking the magic of the first is still enchanting in its own right with Dwarves, Centaurs, Minotaurs and Satyrs. Although the death toll lacks the usual screen gore it is still (in my opinion) a little alarming in its frequency for a children's film and the killing is glossed over with barely a thought. Still watch out for the cameo return of the White witch, in my opinion by far the best bit!

TV of the month!

It's got to be Big Brother! Whether you're interested in reality TV or not try this programme out as an exercise in unconditional love. If you're anything like me you'll be throwing your remote at the poisonous wannabe's before the credits roll!

Does this call to you?

Mandy aka White Bear sent me the following message by email and asked me to pass it on ...

"White Feather & Little Bear have a vision as a result of the channellings that White feather has been receiving. We would very much like to form an Eco-friendly, sustainable living community that is based around sharing and caring for Mother Earth, All Her inhabitants, and each other. We would be looking to foster interfaith spiritual teachings, offering healings and other spiritual gifts, growing and selling our own produce, making use of our own skills and all renewable resources. We realise this would take commitment and finance and we are currently looking into the feasibility and laws affecting this kind of community living, but we would be very pleased to hear from anyone who would genuinely like to be a part of this kind of project."

Tickle anyone's fancy? If so contact Mandy on a.mead@homecall.co.uk

New Ipsissi stock now in!

New stock just in for Ipsissimus is a new range of Hedingham Fair greetings cards based on the months of the year, check them out on line! As well as this we have a new book published by the same company on the Celtic Ogham (Tree Runes) beautifully illustrated and incredibly informative for those wanting to find out about this ancient native system of communication and divination. Also we have just received some lovely hand bag sized resin statues of St Francis (you should never leave home without one) and a beautiful plaque of the Apostles. We've also added an audio recording of the Thought forms workshop held in London last month (a fantastic subject packed with powerful spiritual tools and information). In addition to all this (as if this wasn't enough) Andrew will now be offering Lunar Astrology charts as well as Spiritual Astrology Charts incorporating not only Chiron but also several others Asteroids which provide a spiritual dimension to the reading of the natal chart. To find out more go to www.ipssissimus.co.uk

Elementals aren't just for the outside you know!

Anyone interested in healing the body on a deeper level and/or elementals would be well advised to book themselves a place on my up and coming Body Elementals workshop in London next month. Body Elementals are the indwelling life forms that occupy our bones, blood, internal gasses (such as Oxygen) and electrical nerve impulses in the body. Connecting to these inner elementals and working with them for ourselves and others can help us gain greater control and mastery over the body as well as help with the healing of others by resetting the bodies natural rhythms and wellness state. To find out more and to book a place go to Ipsissimus and scroll along to Treadwells Workshops.

Gentle Reminder!

Tickets for the Heaven on Earth event in London in August featuring Celia Fenn, Sarupa Sha, Jean-Luc Bozzoli and myself are booking fast so to avoid disappointment get hooked up with a ticket pronto. We'd hate for you to miss the fun! To find out more about the day check out the website on www.heavenlyspaces.co.uk

Spiritual Astrology

Many people have had a traditional birth chart cast for them using the usually culprits. But there is so much more to a person's astrological blueprint. As humankind is developing more and more mysteries are being revealed to us to help us on our way. One such example of this is the discovery and understanding of other universal objects. Asteroids, to name but one example, have been known about for decades but it is relatively recently that interpretations have been brought forward. This knowledge can be used to guide us along a more spiritual path as their meanings have been interpreted in a much more esoteric way. Who knows what other amazing features of our universe will be discovered and interpreted. Only time and enlightenment will tell.

And finally ...

After a nasty outbreak of white Spot I am sad to say that all of my lovely fish have "embraced the light"! Andrew and I have decided after a little while to start again and hope to be getting our new fish on Friday. Cor blimey if this is what it feels like to loose a fish I'm SO glad I don't have children to worry about! I'll keep you posted on the new arrival in the next Chron.

Well folks that's it for this month enjoy the Summer sunshine while its here and we'll see you all again in August, in the meantime bright blessed be.
