

September 2008

Welcome To September!

It's hard to believe its here already but this really is the penultimate month of the energy of the Christ Light, October being the time when the energy of our present year slowly concedes to the energy of the new which begins energetically on November the 1st! This then promises to be a powerful month what with Mercury in Retrograde on the 4th (double check those emails really get to where they're going and mind your P's and Q's) to the day of Karmic Absolution on the 9th (a perfect time to ask St Germain for help with clearing Karmic blockages). Not to mention Mabon on the 23rd (Wiccan harvest a time of gathering in all that you require for the long Winter ahead, counting your blessings and beginning to let go of the year that was). So buckle up and enjoy the ride as the Christ energy rises higher in order to give us all a good cooking of light before we enter into October, whatever happens this month you can bet there are still plenty of surprises in store before the energy of the year is over!

Diary Dates For This Month.

This month on the 7th we have a workshop in London for the London College of Spirituality entitled Spirituality in the City! Anyone leading city life (or life in general come to that) and seeking a little guidance on how better to manage their energies and the energies of their environment plus juggle the 3D reality with their unfolding spiritual nature should head to this workshop as it will detail what energies and techniques we can spiritually employ to make our ordinary life a better one whilst breathing a little light into the ordinary back streets of the world in which we live. See the College website for further details... On the 13th of the month in Ewell Surrey we have a very exciting workshop entitled White alchemy and the Mysteries of Merlin the Mage! This one day workshop will focus on the magickal principles and techniques of spiritual alchemy and how we can use them to change our lives and ourselves whilst learning a little about the magickal mage himself! It promises to be a truly enchanting day! Contact Carole Humber for further details ... And finally on the 30th of the month in Huddersfield I will be giving an evening lecture for New Directions on Everyday Ascension focusing on exactly what Ascension is as well as updates regarding Masters and Angels and events and energies we need to know about for our own evolutionary well being and the planets! The rest of the month, save for a special which I'll mention below as its just SO exciting, is full of the usual readings (all booked up I'm afraid) which you can find details of on my website calendar. If you are desperate for a reading you might want to read down as there are some opportunities up and coming for absents but you'll have to be quick as they're going like hot cakes!

New Angels, Masters & Rays Oh My!

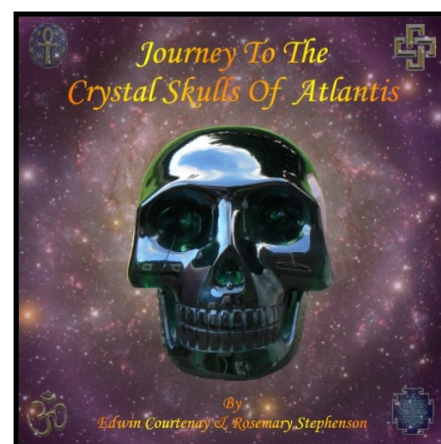

On the 21st of September I will be holding my very first workshop in Cumbria at the The Workshop Archangels, Ascended Masters and the Rays will focus on the Angels and Masters working with mankind to aid with our Ascension and evolution, as well as the spiritual rays of energy that we can work with for ourselves and the planet. The workshop will particularly focus on those new Angels and Masters coming forwards to work with us now (very exciting) and contain exercises and meditations to connect with these presences plus live channellings from yours truly. To find out more about the day and to book a place go straight to www.ipssissimus.co.uk click on shop and then Cumbrian Workshops.

You'd best hurry as places are limited to only 25!

More Absent Readings & Healing Now Online!

Online now (but very probably not for long) absent readings (as good as the real thing if not better ... as you don't have to look at my ugly mug) and absent healings of a Karmic and soul contract nature are now online! Go to Ipssissimus and shop and scroll above for the appropriate service. These tend to book out super quick, we've had two go already and not let anyone know yet, so you really do need to be quick off the mark if you want to take up this opportunity. Don't forget for those of you with only one pressing question there is always the One Question option, something which usually sees your questions answered within the week (thank the goddess for the Blackberry) so don't be shy have a try and see what you think!

Movie Of The Month

For those who like their fairy tales with a harder edge Hell Boy 2 The golden Army is for you. With some wonderful tongue in cheek moments as well as truly beautiful depictions of the elemental world this is a super hero action flick with a subtle ecological spiritual message that maybe hides a truth or two (if only the 3D world would see it) regarding mankind's betrayal of the elemental kingdoms. A truly great watch!

CD Of The Month

I know I've already mentioned it on my blog but Adele's 19 album, my favourite accompaniment to working at home on the computer at the moment, is a truly breath taking work from a 19 year (in my opinion) indigo child. Soul full and melodic with the most amazing vocals Adele wrote all the music ob this stunning debut album. Get it ... I dare you not to be moved!

Chocolate Bar Of The Month

The chocolate bar of the month for September is the humble Kit Kat this stalwart of British confectionary is a welcome friend to the train traveller with its crisp wafer and deep milky chocolaty flavour. Hmmm my mouth watering just thinking about it. It truly is a bite of heaven on Earth!

And Talking Of Heaven In A Straw ...

As many of you know I am (amongst many other things) a complete Starbucks-a-holic! My latest coffee oriented tippie is a signature hot chocolate with hazelnut syrup mmm mmmm mmmmm! Truly a taste of Ascension in a plastic cup! Favourite of the sweet tooth this is a fantastic find ... go on you know you want to!

Full Moon in Pisces

September's full Moon is in Pisces on the 15th 09:13am GMT. Pisces is a sign of escapism and fantasy which will be enhanced by the full Moon's presence. Adding to the drama is the addition of Pluto. The Moon is square Pluto which brings even more difficulties to an already confused and illusionary situation. Take nothing at it's face value, be prepared to be deceived on all levels and believe nothing until you have checked things out thoroughly.

This will apply to all of you who are strongly influenced by the Moon and those with strong Piscean connections.

To find out where your Moon is in your birth chart contact shop@ipssissimus.co.uk with your birth details and I will calculate you Sun, Moon and Ascendant. Bright Blessings - Andrew
