

April

New Month New House!

Welcome to the April edition of the Courtenay Chronicles. I'm starting this month's newsletter with some VERY exciting news, well exciting for Andrew and I that is, yup we're moving house! By the time you get May's CC we should be, fingers crossed, all moved into Low Burnfoot, a fantastic cottage in Featherstone near Haltwhistle. Yes these are real names folks! Low Burnfoot has its own small river running at the bottom of the garden, a purpose built fire pit, a large greenhouse and vegetable patch and a room up stairs big enough for me to run small workshops and evening lectures! With just a 15 minute walk to the local pub, over a tiny bridge across the Burn perfect for playing poo sticks on and B&B's close by. It's perfect for all sorts of goodies that Andrew and I have up our sleeve (see below for one of these). So wish us luck and please send us soothing thoughts for the madness that is packing! Frazzled but contented I'll write again soon from Low Burnfoot!

A New Spiritual Development Group Near Carlisle!

It is my intention a little later on in the year to start a spiritual development circle at my new home in Featherstone! I'm not sure as yet whether or not the group will be once or twice a month, numbers will be limited and the focus of the group very much spiritual rather than spiritualist. Topics covered will include channeling, clairvoyance, healing, the elements, ascension, Angels and Masters. If you are in the vicinity, interested and would like to register to receive further details as and when I have them please email me at edwin@edwincourtenay.co.uk

Speaking of Carlisle get hot and bothered at the Firebird shop!

The UK Firebird shop is a great new store recently opened in Carlisle, very near to the Cathedral, selling Fair Trade products from jewellery to clothes, to incense burners and fantastic little wooden angels! With a therapy room in the back this sweet smelling shop is well worth a trip inside, distributors of Positive News and with a back wall for local posters and business cards its an absolute treat to find somewhere tip top for ethics and morals as well as variety and bargains. Check it out its truly hot! You can also take a look at their website www.ukfirebird.co.uk

All the fun of the fair!

Andrew and I have recently returned from the Ilkley Complimentary Health Festival, this fantastic MBS run in the quaint and intriguing town of Ilkley was a buzz with people and talk and mini workshops seemed to be well received. There I encountered some truly lovely people offering some truly wonderful services some of which I would very much like to share with you ...

Shifa Prayer Beads

These fantastic prayer beads came in all different shapes and sizes, beautiful and lovingly hand-made with semi precious gem stones and exotic woods which included ebony, rosewood & sandalwood. I bought two, a classical chakra and a Sufi chakra prayer bead. The Sufi Chakra prayer bead was most fascinating! I was also treated to a swipe of the most beautiful aromatic Arabian oil; Bakhoor and because my purchase was over £10 received a free sufi meditation on CD. Check out the website www.shifaprayerbeads.com which should be fully up and running soon, an excellent purchase at fantastic prices.

George Fryer Psychic Artist

One of the most exciting things that happened to me on the fair was having a portrait of my spirit guide drawn by psychic artist George Fryer. George had the stall next to ours and I'd been captivated by the sample drawings on display as well as those I caught a glimpse of that he'd done on the first day. I was also quite taken by the way his aura filled with brilliant silvery star light when he tuned in! By the end of the first day I'd booked myself in for the next morning. Not only did George draw me the most fantastic picture of a slightly older Jack, my guide but he then proceeded to give me a wonderful and spot on reading of my aura! All in all I found this a very illuminating and very moving experience and one which I would heartily recommend (and did) to anyone. Here is George's website should any of you decided to treat yourself ... go on its Easter! www.georgedavidfryer.com

He Hi She Lo

This oddly named crystal shop sold the most beautiful gems and crystal jewellery. My dear friend Rosemary Stephenson bought a very reasonably priced Moldavite Pendant and I got me an Azestulite sphere, soooo beautiful and something I've never seen before, also very reasonably priced. It was also a treat to be served by such knowledgeable and happy people. Have a look at their wonderful website which is full of crystal goodies for you mineral addicts out there! www.hehishelo.co.uk

Christian Smith photographer and miracle worker!

After what seems like years of blurry, slightly out of focus pictures of myself, none of which really looked like me but more like an angry baked bean, I have finally had some professional pictures taken for my website and promotional material. I must say that despite being initially nervous when the day finally dawned I had a ball! Not exactly pouting and tossing my hair back, those days I'm afraid have long since passed ... along with my hair but very much put at ease by Christian Kaora and I had a whale of a time. My happiness was finally complete when Christian sent me the finished images which not only really looked like me but also dare I say a little better than the real thing! A miracle! Christian smith is in my opinion a very gifted photographer, greatly professional, with real disarming charm and beautiful manners, not to mention a spiritual amethyst hued aura to die for! Sympathetic and sensitive to what I wanted I really think he extracted the best out of me without going for the more traditional and rather cheesy shot. Should any of you out there be looking for someone to snap your shots in the London area then this is your man! Check out his rather more edgier work at www.christian-smith.com

Seashells Delay!

I have had a phenomenal response for Envoy Sea Shells (see last months news letter) and so am needless to say a little behind on sending out those shells requested. Please bare with me folks and I will try my best to get them parceled up and posted asap. Sourcing Seashells has also proven difficult (though we've found them now) and then finding boxes has also been tricky. When your Seashell is dispatched I will email you to let you know its on its way. Those of you who have received your shells have given me some great feedback, many thanks and seem to be having some truly miraculous experiences. I hope at some point to devote an entire page to the Envoys on my website where I will post some of these testimonials, please bear this in mind when you send them to me! I also hope to post some new channellings from the Envoys on the web soon.

Speaking of the website ...

I have added a revised Rays, Masters and Angels chart to the Spell Book which was given to me at the beginning of the year. This chart which I use in my Spiritual Numerology readings now includes Cosmic Masters and some new Ascended Masters which we have heard nothing of until now. My particular favourite being Lady Imra a Muslim Lady Ascended Master! Please check out the website to find out more. I also hope to add in a week or so's time a new channeling from the angels of Atlantis.

And whilst we on the topic of website updates ...

Ipsissimus our online shop is just about to receive a wonderful update of beautiful Fluorite Crystal Skulls, truly mouth wateringly gorgeous pocket sized beauties, some spectacular Angel vases (perfect for all Angel lovers altar's) and some magickal pewter jewellery as well as humorous spiritual cards. Pop along to the shop in a week or two to check out these very reasonably priced goodies as well as checking out my latest service ...

Mini Messages from the Masters!

Mini Messages from the Masters is an antidote to all those people who would love to receive Channelled Letters from the Masters but who either can't afford them or can't wait the rather long time until they become available to subscribe again! These postcard sized individually channelled messages from the Masters and Angels are imbued and encoded with spiritual energy and healing power and can be carried about the person as talismans of light in these times of darkness and confusion. Featuring inspirational and uplifting personal channeled messages and affirmations of truth for you they act as beacons and boosters of positive power, surrounding you in an aura of shining spiritual light. Reasonably priced at just £10 (plus shipping) they will be available from the online shop (as well as at those MBS fairs I will be attending) soon!

Easter

Easter, the resurrection of Jesus, is interlinked to the Wiccan/Pagan holiday. Easter falls on the first Sunday after the first full moon of the Spring Equinox. The word "Easter" is similar to "Ostara," "Eostre." To drive in the message of fertility, we have derivative words: estrogen; being in ovary, ova/egg.

Egg and rabbit are fertility symbols. The world is ablaze with life; plants pop up; many animals conceive or give birth.

30 April, 1 May;

Walpurgisnacht. Beltaine. ("Tene" means fire). Beltaine is a festive holiday. It is considered by some as the 2nd-most important Wiccan holiday, taking back seat only to Samhein. It is a time of flowers, fires, food, drink, dancing and general merry-making. Why the celebration? Because the Lord and Lady unite in a hand-fasting (a marriage ceremony). People dance around the maypole, a symbol of male fertility. The cauldron is a symbol of female fertility. Just as Samhein allows for easier access to the dead, the night of 30 April-1 May is the time to view faeries.

Well that's all for now folks enjoy the lovely April weather and the truly glorious return of nature's bounty and lets try and stay focused on the positive and away from the negative! Remember what you do counts and makes a difference so lets keep sending out the light and healing energy to those who are in greater need, both near and far, than we ourselves are. Bright blessings in the meantime p.s. I now have a new work number! It is 07535618579 my old work number will still work for a while, either way as always if you're going to get in touch I much prefer email or text! x Ed
Edwin C x

p.p.s. there are still a few places left for the Inspiration course in Carlisle on the 18th and 19th of April please email or call for more details and to secure a place!