

December

Welcome to this very special Christmas edition of the Courtenay Chronicles! This is the last time you will see the Courtenay chronicles in this shape and form as next year, along with the website and Blog, it will undergo a miraculous makeover/transformation and will be, needless to say, almost unrecognisable from what it has been over the last year!

A Little Thank You

This edition is special for a number of reasons, firstly no advertisements, no cd or book or website of the month but rather just a channelling and a suggested ritual for Christmas Eve. Secondly it is special because the channelling has been brought forwards just for this edition of the Courtenay Chronicle and can be found nowhere else on the internet or various websites. It's a little thank you, from spirit and Andrew and myself for all your continued support and love throughout the year.

Here then is to 2009, the ups, the downs and the somewhere in between, Goddess bless her and may she pass peacefully and in love and here's to 2010 – the ups, the downs and the somewhere in between may the God bless her with all light, truth and love and may we all move through with grace and joy.

Enjoy the channelling and I'll look out for you on Christmas Eve when I do my ritual in chilly Northumbria, bright blessed be Andrew and Ed

Christmas Channelling

"I am the Maitreya, I the Christ Light, I the living love of the Divine, the son of the Source of All as all women and men are. I one of the first three Souls born in this Galaxy to watch over life here on Earth and guide it, in time, back to it's beginning and creator. Though I have never lived as man or woman on Earth many have been those times in which I have inhabited the willing body and consciousness of those Masters capable of holding, supporting and expressing my power and my light on Earth. My Avatars, my beloved children, the Masters Jesus, Buda and Krishna (to name but a few) who in their own way, in their own time and culture have allowed my light to shine out into the hearts of humanity and bring the lasting change that has helped steer them ever closer to their great and long promised reunion with the Source.

Now as we move ever closer to the prophesied time of 2012, the date set for the re creation of your world, it becomes ever more important, ever more vital that humanity allows the Christ Spark that rests within the core of their heart, placed there each and every time they have incarnated, to become magnified and shine. For it is this light, the light of the Christ Flame realised, that will awaken in others their own Christ Spark and set their consciousness and their hearts free from the bonds and burdens of illusion. It is this star that has always guided the children of the Divine home, this Star of wonder, this star of ever burning brightness.

And it has always been this star, seen in many different ways, present every time the Christ energy returned to the Earth embodied by a man that has burnt in the night sky and in the days light. Rivalling the beauty of the Sun itself, the galactic representative of the Divine in your Cosmos. And it is this star, which will be seen again by all, that will mark the moment when the Christ presence reaches a majority of presence upon your world in the future which is soon to come. This environmental response echoing and mirroring the return of light and Divinity to the consciousness of humanity.

This Christmas then, this Christmas Eve let us join together through ritual, a ritual which in many different cultures has been performed for hundreds if not thousands of years, to kindle a light to guide Mary and Joseph to their stable in order that the Master Jesus might be born, holding the Christ presence in his tiny heart. This year let us kindle a flame that we might guide the Souls and spirits of all those lost to home or shelter, whether they be the wandering Spirits of the dead seeking the light of the spirit World, those physically lost seeking their way back home to those they love, or those spiritually lost seeking their way back to the path. Let us kindle a physical flame and at the same time ignite within us the burning brightness of the Christ energy, my energy, that it might shine out broader and more wide, deeper and more penetrating into the gloom about us, into the night, into the ethers where all might see it, feel it and know the warmth of it's love. Let us do this together as the shadow of night falls and play our part in returning the light of the Christ to Earth and to the hearts and minds of humanity everywhere. In love let this be done and in peace and joy, in the glory and the name of the goddess and the God and the one unified greatness that is then both co joined and transcended in the beyond. In love then blessed and beloved children of Earth let this be so, in perfect love and perfect trust."

Ritual

On Christmas Eve when the light starts to fade light a votive candle SAFELY on a window sill where it might be seen outside.

Close your eyes and focus upon your heart. Opening the heart centre and allowing the Christ Spark within, the Ruby Red spark of light at its centre, to burst into flame and flourish. See this rich warm red glow growing brighter and brighter, shining out into the gloom – mirrored by the candles glow, shining out wide and broad into the ethers, into the dark night and beyond. Imagine all those other candles out there burning, all those other heart centres blazing with light, all joining together with one purpose, one focus, the illumination of the people of the world and the guiding of the lost Souls and spirits home. See in your mind's eye the Star of wonder burning brightly, somewhere out there, brighter than the Sun, shining like a star. Say the words below ...

"Burning, burning brighter than the stars, star of wonder guide them home. Mother Mary, Joseph and your unborn child, find the manger where hope might be born. All those lost, all those frightened, all those awakening from their slumbers deep. Guide them home by the light of my little candle, by the light of my heart blazing, by the light of the Star of wonder, by the light of the Christ, the light of the Divine, guide them home, guide them home, guide them home."

Winter's Carol

By Tori Amos

from her album Midwinter Graces

A winter's carol
first song of the robin
A winter's carol
echo through the land
And I can hear it
Ringing out
Ringing out from pine to oak Bringing us with the December snow Bringing us a gift of old
Wrapped in ribbons of gold
For the whole world
For the whole world
The Summer Queen
has been in darkness

The Summer Queen
has been in darkness
The Summer Queen
surrenders to this
To him she reveals her wine and secrets
For a time, for a time they join Fire and frost in marriage
Through a midwinter clearing A forest greets the snowy evening
A final kiss and a new beginning His Summer Queen wearing his wreath Soon with the sun she will be ascending
Through a midwinter clearing
The forest greets a snowy
evening
With four wands of yew,
The holly King Passes the torch as it was intended
A winter's carol
The sun is reborn from the starry heavens
A winter's carol
echoes sound of wonder
and I can hear it
Ringing out ringing out,
From pine to oak Bringing us, with the December snow
Bringing us a gift of old
For the whole world
Ringing out
Winter's carol
