February 2010

Welcome to the beginning of Spring!

Hale and well met travellers on the spiritual road and welcome to February and Spring! That's right because as we have now passed Imbolc/Candlemas on the 2nd of this month we are moving with every ticking of the clock into the energies of light and renewal as the powers of Spring and new life return to our world! Despite the fact that it is still a little bit chilly out there is most definitely a sense of Spring in the air, a sense of life rushing to the surface of the world and the tension and power building for that final push as it explodes into the land. This then is a time of new beginnings, a time of renewed hope and optimism, a time for a good spring clean – both externally and internally – in readiness for the glorious times of the Sun which are to come. So come on ... lets do it together ... lets join the world as it pushes towards life and light!

A New Addition to the Family!

As many of you know I have always looked a little sideways at "Old and Ancient" Crystal Skulls, never really seeing the value or the need of owning such an expensive artefact when the Conclave – the Crystal Skull consciousness – has always seemed so happy to inhabit more contemporary carvings ... however! Late last year I was very fortunate to get my hands on a number of Old and Ancient Crystal Skulls and found the energy to be most intriguing and different, so much so that when the opportunity came to obtain an Old Skull for myself I jumped at it and have recently and finally come into its possession. Valentino, as he is called at the moment because of the heart shaped patch on his side, is made from Black Jade and was obtained from www.crystalswork.com as soon as I got him and placed him by my bed I became aware that he was working powerfully on the right frontal lobe of my brain and third eye. This continued for quite some time after which I placed him with the rest of my collection and began to meditate with him more in earnest. The only way that I can describe the difference in energy is that it is like listening to a vinyl record instead of a CD, the vibrational quality having a greater depth and timbre. When I asked about this the conclave said that working through old and ancient vessels, that have been used countless times before and have therefore built up a repository of energy, enables them to transmit energy and information on a broader band which is perfect for some channels and Crystal skull users. Those who have been recognised as being able to channel and resonate with such energies and who have therefore been chosen by the Conclave to work in this way! Needless to say as I know more you will be the first to know! He is indeed Mongolian - but only just. He comes from 'border country' - where Inner Mongolia meets Northern China.

It is believed that Valentino was excavated in the mid 1800's after which he was purchased in Peking (Beijing) as a kind of 'Cultural Souvenir', thus becoming a possession of one of the first wave of Colonisers in Hong Kong - around 1880/1890. It is believed the skull then stayed in the same 'Colonialists' private collection until he was acquired in early 2006.

Old and Ancient Crystal Skulls ...

If you are looking for more information concerning old and ancient skulls Helen, from Crystals Work, will be posting on her website some information that she has been piecing together there within the next week or so. Helen and I are also planning an old and ancient crystal skull workshop/mini retreat in August of this year where old and ancient crystal skulls will be available for those who do not already possess one to work with. Please email me if you are interested in further details and I will be sure to send them to you as soon as we have them to send!

Atlantean Blessings – these “talismanic” texts are ancient Atlantean pictographs from the Melchisadekian Order channelled personally for you directly from the Crystal Skull collective. Each one comes with a translation of the text and an interpretation of what that text means. The Blessings can be meditated with, slept with, laid upon the body for healing and/or power transmission or kept on the person for protection. Powerful, potent and portable they are yet another way of bringing a little Atlantean Magick and energy back into our everyday lives, a perfect gift for your loved one or yourself at a very affordable price.

Absent Tarot Healing – Tarot Healing is a new form of healing channelled by yours truly using the ancient and powerful archetypal energies of the Tarot. Then using these cards I will transmit their powerful healing energies to the client and compile a comprehensive report of what the Tarot has revealed to me concerning the client's status and needs. Retreat! Retreat! Retreat!

Further details, including prices, concerning our Midsummer Magick retreat will be online at Ipsissimus soon, the retreat will be a truly magickal one at the time of Midsummer when the elementals and fairy folk will be out in force on the Northumbrian landscape. This three day retreat will be held from the 19th to the 22nd of June both indoors and out visiting some of the truly magickal, hidden secret places in the round and about as well as those right on our door step ... literally! An opportunity to make a deeper connection to the Devic realm, explore your own inner magickal power and brush up on your magickal know how whilst participating in the turning of the wheel of the year. This retreat, full of rituals, chanting, singing, magick, healing and channelling is for those of all spiritual paths seeking to step back into the world of the enchanted and will be presided over by the Spirit of the Merlin, Titania and Oberon the Fairy King and Queen, the Ascended Master Khutumi and the Archangels Sandalphon and Uriel.

As for our Cornwall Retreat, mentioned last year, well there has been somewhat of a change of plan and direction (as seems to be the way of the year so far)! This Summer Retreat (dates to be revealed soon on Ippissimus) will now be held in Glastonbury! The theme will focus on the Dream of Avalon and Camelot, the merging and blending of the currents of Paganism and Christianity, the Goddess and the God, the Divine Masculine and the Divine Feminine. Focusing on this on a planetary and personal level, investigating our own inner masculine and feminine energies and the mysteries and magicks that bind us to Glastonbury. Led by Rosemary Stephenson, Andrew and myself this promises to be a magickal retreat of sacred sound, singing and chanting, meditation, ritual and magick, channelling and healing with the Spirit of the Merlin, Lady Portia, El Morya, Lady Miriam and St Germain!

And finally!

Don't forget tickets are now on sale for our Wesak Celebration, this year held in Ewell Surrey featuring Rosemary Stephenson, Paschalis and Frixos (channels from Greece) , Levi from Gibraltar (a Kabbalah teacher) and my good self, further details can be found on Rosemary's website www.celestiallighthealers.com as tickets are limited for this powerful and potent celebration which will culminate in a ritual of spiritual renewal and communion we are advising people to book now in order to avoid disappointment. You can also find Andrew and I at the Ilkley complimentary Health Festival on the 27th and 28th of March where I will be giving three free lectures on the New Ascended Masters, Psychic Protection and Working with the Crystal Skulls plus a longer mini workshop with Rosemary Stephenson on the Atlantean Healing Power of Colour, Sound and Crystals. There will also be a plethora of other lectures and workshops plus stalls galore selling everything from Native American Flutes (Keith Shadow Hawk) to Spirit Guide Portraits (George Fryer) to amazing crystals of every colour form and description. My good friend Trudy Ashplant will be giving readings and the marvellous and amazing British Healers Association also providing a lecture too. Be there or be square!

Lastly and by no means leastly Ippissimus itself will be undergoing a complete makeover very soon! With added functionality and new free information it promises to be a truly magickal website, simple to use and pleasing on the eye. We will also be providing digital downloads of various chants and songs that I use at workshops, retreats and conferences including Hekau, Archangelic intonements, and the Charm of Making. We'll be sending you out a little notification when we are all up and running, until then our present online shop is needless to say fully functional.

Well that's all for now folks, bright blessings and hale and well met Edwin C xxx

You're 'avin' a larf!

Two men meet on the street.
One asks the other: "Hi, how are you?"
The other one replies: "I'm fine, thanks."
"And how's your son? Is he still unemployed?"
"Yes, he is. But he is meditating now."
"Meditating? What's that?"
"I don't know. But it's better than sitting around and doing nothing!"
