

The Courtenay Chronicle

Autumn Special 2010

Autumn Special

Welcome to this special autumn edition of the Courtenay Chronicles and boy aren't those nights drawing in! There's a definite chill in the air and the leaves on the trees are beginning their regal change to red and gold in preparation for their fall. Here at Low Burnfoot we are experiencing some beautiful misty mornings already and starting to think wood for the fire and cardigans for Mr. Courtenay as the temperature drops in the evening. This to me is a most magickal time of wonder and change and I must confess to feeling more than a little excited about it all – not to mention the prospect of some autumn clothes shopping! Some of us look so much better when our bodies are fully clothed – know what I mean! Well this month (October) and the months following we have a plethora of exciting things in store of a more spiritual nature! Read on to find out more ...

10 places on 10-10-10

We have just 10 places left on the Christ Consciousness Workshop here in Northumberland on 10/10/10! This promises to be a truly wondrous day when the masculine Christ energy descends and marries with the feminine Christ energy – the Sophia energy aka the Magdalena Flame – forming the new Rose Gold Christ Light within the hearts of humanity for 2012 and the New Earth. Check out the details on our workshop page over at www.ipssissimus.co.uk where you can book yourself one of our last remaining spaces. This will be a once in a lifetime opportunity to experience this powerful initiation in like minded company guided and surrounded by the love of the Masters and the Angels! Be there or be square ;-)

Angel Awareness Day

If Northumberland is a little too far for you to travel on the 10th of October but you are in the vicinity of London you might want to trot along to Angel Awareness Day which is being held in the Friends House, 173 Euston Rd. Rosemary Stephenson will be on hand with Diana Cooper offering a wonderful day of meditations, esoteric teachings and beautiful crystal singing bowl sound baths. Diana will be launching her new book and signing copies which will be on sale. Rosemary and I will be linking together energetically on this day and holding a powerful line of energy connecting the north and south through a brilliant beam of light and love. This promises then to be another great day and one that simply shouldn't be missed!

Crystal Skull Workshop

Later in November we have a Crystal Skull Workshop planned here in Northumberland, there are still places available on this one day crystal skull treat where we will explore in more depth exactly what the crystal skulls are, where they came from, what secrets and powers they store and how this power can be accessed and worked with! There will be plenty of my own skulls there for people to experience, practice and play with but of course if you are a skull guardian yourself – no matter how big or small that skull might be – you are more than welcome to bring them along too. There will be crystal skulls available for sale too and the workshop is open to experienced crystal skull workers and newbies alike – there will be plenty to learn, contemplate and experience for all. With live trance channellings from the skulls themselves throughout the day this promises to be a real goodie, so if skulls are your thing check out the online shop for more details and to book!

Crossroads in Northumberland

In December we have another workshop here in Northumberland – the last of the year – which will be the Crossroads workshop. This workshop has been designed by spirit for all those who feel lost and at a crossroads in their life and on their spiritual path at this moment in time. It is also excellent for those guides who find themselves at the moment presented with more and more people who are lost seeking guidance and direction. The workshop looks at those powers that we can call upon for assistance as well as providing practical guidance and exercises to help us find our own way, as well as the courage, strength and power to pursue it! Check out the shop for more details.

Alchemy in Surrey!

Rather a lot further south I will be running my last workshop of the year down there in Surrey which will be the Alchemy Workshop. I ran this workshop "up north" earlier in the year to much positive feedback and so have decided to take the wisdom of the Magicians – and the Spirit of the Merlin – southwards! This workshop caters for those people seeking to make long lasting, definite changes to their life and spiritual path, those seeking to transform those "leaden" areas of their life to gold! So whether this be a financial matter, relationships, habits and personal patterns or matters of a more spiritual nature that you are looking to change this is the workshop for you. Drawing upon esoteric alchemical practices as well as planetary and Divine powers this is a potent workshop full of experiential exercises, channellings from the Magicians and the spirit of the Merlin and much practical wisdom to be gained. Fancy a bit of that? Contact Carole Humber – my organizer in Surrey - for details on carole@sanctuaryofsophia.eclipse.co.uk

For all those who have done Inspiration the Reiki of Atlantis Module 1 with either myself or one of the other of my teachers there is still one place left on my Teachers' Course scheduled for 20th/21st of November here at Low Burnfoot. The course last two days, costs £340 and qualifies you as a Teacher for Module 1. For your money you will get your Teachers' Manual as well as your students manuals, recorded invocations, teachers' crystals and a place on the Inspiration website as a certified teacher of the system in your area. Drop me an email for more details or to book, here's my address edwin@edwincourtenay.co.uk

Whilst we're talking workshops a word in your ear!

As many of you will know earlier in the year Sue Hodgson and I had to cancel a workshop in Surrey we had planned on the Plight of the Bumble Bee. We cancelled the workshop due to poor booking figures – just 12 one week before the workshop was due on – which would have made it impossible for us to attend without having to dig deep in our own pockets to fund our travel and accommodation not to mention the hall hire. Both Sue and I have come under some criticism for our decision in cancelling as some people felt that we should have gone ahead with the workshop – as it is such an important one – despite the financial challenge. Some have even gone so far as to suggest we should have offered the workshop for free! I think it important that we all understand here that Sue and I cancelled this workshop after a great deal of soul searching, weighing our desire to go ahead no matter what with the practical need to at least cover our costs! As it happens at the end of the day we would probably have had 25 people attending – more than enough for us to cover our expenses – but waiting to the bitter end or taking the chance that all will work out right (no matter how much faith we have in spirit) is no way to run a business and that is what both Sue and I are doing. Being business minded is not materialistic – I assure there are many times when this is clearly evident – and although we understand that people are holding onto their cash until the bitter end and making their decisions later in the day about choosing whether or not they can afford to go to workshops this is not helping those of us who have to make our decisions at least a week or more in advance as to whether such events will go ahead. Sue and I are not the only ones who have had to struggle with this recently; many others too have had to cancel due to a lack of up front commitment. I urge you then all to be a little bolder in booking well in advance if you want these workshops to take place after all. Sorry if I sound a little heavy handed but I felt prompted – after a rather rude and inconsiderate email Sue received which was quite frankly hurtful – to stand in my power and voice my truth on these matters - as my dear old Mum often says – fountain of wisdom that she is – best to get it off your chest dear!

MBS's a go go!

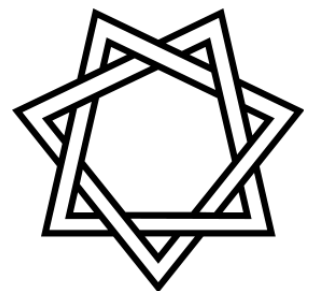

For those of you who are all work-shopped out or just simply can't afford – so late in the year – to be investing in such things there is an up and coming abundance of opportunities to see me – and others – much more cheaply! I will be appearing at two holistic fairs in the coming months giving talks and helping Andrew on our mobile Ipsissimus stall! Synergy will be at Saltburn – where I will be talking on Elementals and Healing with Crystal Skulls on the 2nd October as well as the Ilkley Complementary Health Festival on the 30th & 31st October where I will be giving no less than four talks and one longer workshop in two days! These will be on Atlantean Runes, Hidden and New Chakra's, Anchoring the Light and Practical Sacred Geometry with my longer lecture on Samhain (Halloween) and the Communing with the Ancestors and Spirits! Please visit www.icmf.co.uk for more details. Hope to see you there – do come over to the stand and say hello!

DLC starting November

The DLC is my first ever Distance Learning Course run through Ipsissimus for all those who can't get to workshops or lectures suffering from spiritual isolation, lack of motivation, instruction and teaching. Working with small groups of just seven people you receive an email in the first week of each month with exercises and homework followed by a guided meditation cd produced by Edwin in the second week as well as monthly channellings. In addition to all this there is the chance to interact via email with your other DLC members as well as myself, asking questions, sharing your experiences and of course providing me with your monthly home work! Trials of this course have been very successful helped people enormously with their feelings of isolation and lack of knowing quite what to do to keep their spiritual momentum moving forwards. The course focuses on psychical and spiritual development from connecting with your guide and guardian angel to aligning to your soul, as well as focusing on important basics like psychical protection and the creating of sacred space! To review the course in detail go to www.ipssissimus.co.uk and click on Distance Learning Course!

Blog On!

I have finally got round to disciplining myself (naughty!) into writing my blog now almost every day! I have recently uploaded what I like to think as some very interesting articles about all sorts of stuff from energy observations to points of spiritual interest. I try to keep the blog above all honest and true to how I am feeling and have had some great feedback so far. You can check out the blog via my website, by following the link on Facebook – where blog updates will be posted – or by going directly to the blog itself. Take a look and leave me a comment – I love to collect them!

Mr E's Phone Number – what?! Not another new one!!

I'm afraid so! I have a new phone and a new phone number to go with it! Please now change all your records to the below number, the phone will be switched on from 10am to 6 pm after which it will go onto the answer phone. I of course will have to switch the phone off from time to time when I'm giving readings and teaching – haven't quite learned how to text and channel at the same time – yet! Please don't call to enquire about readings, go to either my website www.edwincourtany.co.uk or our online shop www.ipssissimus.co.uk to find out about how to book an in person or absent reading or to find your local organiser. Many thanks and I look forwards to hearing from you! My new number is 07720 375819.

Sheffield Sue's Green Ray Reiki Hits Surrey!

The lovely Sue Hodgson, elemental channel, Reiki Teacher, Reflexologist and founder of the Green Ray Reiki system will be offering the first level in Surrey later this year! This system works with the living life force energy of the Earth – the Green Ray – and attunes participants to this power and the elemental kingdom to which it is powerfully linked. I myself intend to do this course later next year and CANNOT wait! For further details about Sue and the course and to find out more about booking Water, water everywhere and what a lovely drop to drink!

A dear friend of our – Irene Llewellyn – has been hard at work on a fascinating new project involving powerful pure natural spring water called Aenon! Here is what she had to say about it ...

"I love this water it comes from the spring naturally sparkling, so gentle, and it has a memory of codes that we can access to support our journey here on earth if we desire. The driving forces of helping disadvantaged children (a portion of the proceeds from the water goes to charity), and harmonising/introducing at the cellular level the tone/frequency of love and gratitude to unsuspecting Joe public has always been my greatest motivation in this project. As well as being great for drinking - i sent samples for testing to Brussels and it gained 3 stars which is the highest score - I have been making essences with it and find it really powerful for this use. I have just started a "I-Am-Essence" range using the water and a lovely tree here at home. Aenon can be bought ordered from me, 07725580797 and is £10.99 for a box of 12 750ml bottles, either naturally sparkling or still and £11.50 1 litre size. This is distributor prices and delivery would have to be added and could be anything from £5.50 to £8 per box depending on post code distance from Durham."

Andrew and I have sampled the water and found it to have a very smooth taste as well as a very pure and powerful vibration, we are now serving it up to our workshop attendee's here at Low Burnfoot!

Divine Prosperity Symbol

Miriam Cartwright, a friend, channel and spiritual journey guide has very kindly offered this wonderful symbol – channelled by my brother Graham – to share with us all.

Here is what she had to tell me about the story of its manifestation ...

"On a recent journey to Egypt I saw a most Beautiful Goddess rise out of the Nile the goddess of liberty and light, she asked me to help her with some work whilst I was there...I did my best to oblige. She also told me of ...yes a new symbol, the symbol of divine prosperity. She said that many light workers were struggling for their prosperity consciousness was not activated and this symbol would in fact be a key for many to bring in new fields of light that would support their dreams, a wave of radiant abundance would be activated within them and their field of light.

It is a symbol that will support the energy of the new Golden age one that was active in the time of Atlantis, and I feel now wishing to be fully activated in the here and now."

If you would like more information about this symbol, Miriam's work or Grahams symbol making please send your enquiries to me and I will pass them on.

That's all folks ...

Well that's all for the time being folks, enjoy the change that autumn brings and wrap up nice and warm because it's time to break out those thermals and those fur lined knickers ... I already have mine on! Bright blessings and toodleloo Mr E x x x

Cheeky.....

(Tune: "Men of Harlech")

What the use of wearing panties
Whalebone corsets of your Auntie's
Boxer shorts and other scanties
Best of all is nude

There's such fun in going bra-less
Now that it's no longer lawless
'Specially if your figure's flawless
Best of all is nude

Nude is what you're born in Shirts are never torn in
Underwear and lacy flimsies, garter belts and other whimsies

Yards of itchy cloth to put your form in
Ducks all do it, maidens rue it
Even ancient Picts in Britain blue it
Going naked's how to do it
Best of all is nude!
